SUPPLEMENTAL REMARKS B

Commissioner for Patents
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Applicants filed Amendment B earlier today, and subsequently realized that there was a typographical error in referencing Dittia et al. in the Remarks section presented therein, and therefore provide these Supplemental Remarks B. Please consider the following remarks. Reconsideration and/or further prosecution of the application is respectfully requested. No new matter is added herein.

In regards to the claim rejections, all claims stand rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as being unpatentable over a combination including Dittia et al., US Patent 6,826,186. The present application and Dittia et al., US Patent 6,826,186 were, at the time of invention of the present application was made, owned by, or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person/company. Therefore, all rejections are traversed and the Office action fails to present a prima facie rejection of any claim as the Dittia et al. reference has been successfully removed.

In view of the above remarks and for at least the reasons presented herein, in Amendment B filed earlier today, and the Remarks presented in Amendment A filed May 19, 2006, all pending claims are believed to be allowable over the prior art of record, the application is considered in good and proper form for allowance, and the Office is respectfully requested to issue a timely Notice of allowance in this case. If, in the opinion of the Office, a telephone conference would expedite the prosecution of the subject application, the Office is invited to call the undersigned attorney.

Respectfully submitted,

The Law Office of Kirk D. Williams
